

Traditional Printed Blinds

McKenna Brothers provide the Passenger Transport Industry with a quality Destination and Route Number blind service that is unequalled. We have built our reputation on both quality of product and reliability of service.

All production is carried out "In House" giving absolute control over each process, which results in a standard of quality that our customers expect and we ourselves demand.

Whether it's a fully DDA compliant latest specification set of blinds for your fleet of vehicles, or a single classic look blind for your individually preserved vehicle, McKenna Brothers have both the experience and specialist knowledge to supply a product for your needs.
